Summer lingers with us longer than the summer visitor.

The Gazette-News says Asheville spent $4,000 on amusements last Saturday. It certainly costs our neighbors to have a day of it.

A great opportunity will be given the people of Hendersonville next week to learn more about the Book of Books when Rev. Mr. Miller gives his course of lectures on the Bible.

We are sometimes called a restless traveling people but statistics show that a greater percent of the people of the United States own their homes than in any other country.

The Raleigh Evening Times is to be congratulated most heartily upon the accession of Mr. Robert L. Gray to its editorial staff. "Bob" Gray is one of the talented writers we read about, possesses ability of a high character, has a pleasing style of expression and is well informed upon public affairs national and state. Those who enjoy an editorial page that is right up to the minute will find the Times both interesting and entertaining.

The good old state of Kentucky leads off for President Wilson's re-nomination as the Democratic stand-bearer. Senator Ollie James started the ball in motion before the State Democratic convention last week and the resolutions he offered were adopted without a dissenting vote. Recently a congressional district convention away out west put itself on record in favor of the President succeeding himself and it is a safe guess he can have the nomination without even the asking. With his own party united and aggressive and the admitted strength of the President amongst republican, progressive and independent voters he will open the campaign for reelection under very favorable auspices.

It is a bit remarkable that Colonel Bryan and Roosevelt should have eliminated themselves from the public mind at almost the same time. Both of them possess admirable qualities; both were good citizens and both have gone wrong. But the country will be along without the advice of either all right and not even miss them. Representing two extremes—peace-at-any-price and war-at-any-price, it is well enough that Bryan and Roosevelt no longer figure prominently in the affairs of the country. It is just a case of two good men going wrong. But they did and that settles it. President Wilson is still on guard and the country is safe.

PLEASURE.

It is right and natural that normal healthy people should want pleasure. Recreation and amusement are beneficial and helpful to all. The old adage, 'all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy' is a wise old saying. But there is a limit beyond which pleasure is harmful. To make the whole aim and existence of life the pursuit of pleasure is to build the character of a weakling. To gratify every whim and fancy and constantly seek new diversions will finally take away the capacity to enjoy.

There is more and more a tendency to seek some amusement every day in our lives. Duties are hurried through, and rest is cut short that we may get out and join in the chase for pleasure. It is the movie, the theater, the dance or party or automobile or drive. Something must be going on to keep one amused. The simple life, sitting at home in the evening is no longer in fashion. Young people find no interests at home. They hurry through lessons and meals and are out and gone chasing what? That undefinable, effervescent something, called pleasure. Time and money and health and strength are given in trying to have a good time. It is all in the view point one takes. But it seems people of today all see pleasure in the maddening rush of going somewhere, after something that might be found at their own fireside. Let us take things more calmly and listen to the still small voice that speaks of the higher things of life.

Why not get in the race and win that $50 diamond ring given away by The Western Carolina Democrat Saturday, this week for most money in subscriptions turned in during the one week only.

HORSE SHOE CURVES

The ice cream supper held at the school house last week was a success. The sum of $17 being realized.

Mr. Philip Sitton leaves this week for Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. William McKelvey of Brevard spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brannon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Barnette of Route 2 spent Sunday here.

Mrs. D. N. Davenport spent the week end at Brevard.

Mrs. Benson and children who have been spending the summer here leave Wednesday for their home in Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Ray Brown and sister, Miss Annie Ben of Fruitland Institute spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown.

MT. OLIVET BREEZES.

There was a good Sunday school at Mt. Olivet Sunday, also a good prayer meeting Sunday night.

We were all made sad to hear of the death of John King at his former home on Mud Creek, from typhoid fever.

Glover Osteen and Rev. Jno. C. Ward made a business trip to Tigersville, S. C., Saturday, returning Sunday.

The public school at Mt. Olivet is closed this week on account of the death of Miss Woodfin's brother in law, Mr. Perry Moore, at Blantyre.

We are glad to know that Willy Jones, who was recently treated for cancer by a Greenville specialist, is getting along nicely.

Many of our farmers are pulling fodder this week.

Chinquapins are getting ripe and there are a good many of them here too.

Reuben Ballard is hauling a good deal chestnut wood.

Jno Lusk has moved to E. H. Freeman's place on Green River.

BEAR WALLOW.

Mr. Frank Bamburg and family of Bamburg, S. C., passed through the Hickory Nut Gap the past week and were delighted with the scenery.

Mr. M. Georgron of Rutherfordton was a visitor in this section the past week.

Mr. Wells of Charlotte passed through this section recently, and thought the scenery beautiful.

Mr. J. B. Foster and Mr. Ray Ross made a business trip to Asheville Saturday.

Mr. W. A. Pryor made a business trip to Hendersonville recently.

Mr. Thos. Turner of Esmeralda Inn, made a business trip to Asheville the past week.

Somebody is going to get a $50 diamond ring Saturday at 12 o'clock. If you are not in the race why not give your subscription to your favorite contestant—the votes count on Overland automobile and the other $100 diamond ring contest which closes Saturday one hour later.

NED FINDLEY AND EDITH STORY SHOWN AT THE VISTA THURSDAY.

The patrons as well as the management of the Vista theater were disappointed last Monday on account of the failure of the famous Vitagraph picture "O'Garry of the Royal Mounted," featuring Edith Story and Ned Findley, to arrive on time. A telegram was received later that the picture had been shipped to Hendersonville, Tenn., by mistake.

This picture, taken at Hendersonville and Bat Cave will be shown at the Vista, Thursday of this week. An advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue.

THIS WESTERN EDITOR LIKES ELIZABETH CITY.

Noah M. Hollowell, editor of the French Broad Hustler and the Western Carolina Democrat of Hendersonville, N. C., was in Elizabeth City this week. Mr. Hollowell was formerly a resident of Belvidere, Perquimans county, and came not as a stranger to Elizabeth City, but he was, nevertheless, surprised at the growth and enterprise developed there in ten years. Editor Hollowell was particularly pleased with the Good Roads spirit as at present manifest in Perquimans and Pasquotank. "Your road between Elizabeth City and Woodville," said Mr. Hollowell, "is worthy of Mountain enterprise."
